PWDA membership

This information tells you about membership with People with Disability Australia.

We will say PWDA for short.

Membership means you sign up to be a member of PWDA to

- Support the work we do
- Have a say in the work we do.

You can join to be a member if you

- Are a person with disability

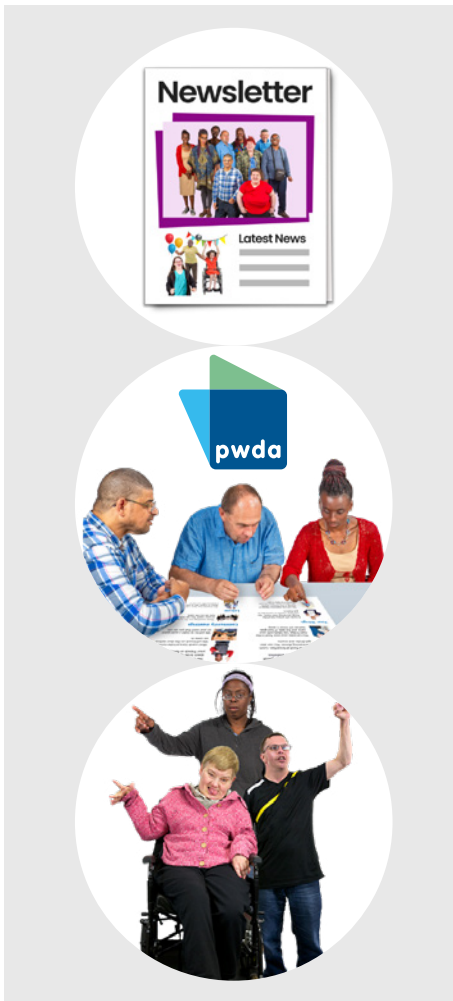

- Are over 18 years old

- Live in Australia.

You do not have to pay money to be a member.

When you are a member you will get

- PWDA newsletters
- Information about new things at PWDA
- Information about disability news and advocacy work.

Advocacy means speaking up about an issue.

When you are a member you can also help choose what PWDA works on next.

You can

- Come to member events

- Share your ideas

- Meet other people with disability.

You can take part in advisory groups.

Advisory groups are groups of people who share ideas.

When you are a member you can

- Come to general meetings

- Vote at general meetings.

General meetings are meetings where we talk about important things happening at PWDA.

Members can join the PWDA board.

The board is a group of people who make big decisions about PWDA.

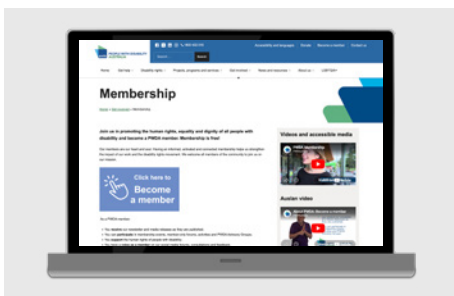

Members can also vote for other people who want to be on the board.
